FLOS Capital announces it has entered into cooperation with two global top tier investors

FLOS Capital Real Estate AG is expanding its client base by cooperating closely with two global leading investors from the US and UK, both managing currently over 10bn of AuM each. The cooperation has been implemented by participating in current and past bidding processes including a prominent, prime high-street mix use property in Berlin, a logistic portfolio throughout Germany as well as two long let office buildings.

“Cooperating closely with global top tier investors such as Thor Equities in the German market attests to the quality of our services and we are keen to support the growth for our clients in the DACH region through our expertise and network. We are concentrating on and looking for efficient off-market deals for high street retail as well as single long lease office/logistic/industrial property in regional hubs and cities for our foreign business partners” says Clemens Stockhammer, MD of FLOS Capital.
